

Important Note: These Richards cannot be the Richard Woodward born 15 June 1700 in Morton Bagot to Robert and Ann, as he died on 13 Oct 1701 at Morton Bagot. The death is not in the parish record but is in the Bishop's Transcript, which shows the burial of "Richard, son of Robert and Ann".

Two Richard Woodward families from Morton Bagot, Warwickshire.
 (Richard's parents unknown)
 Who was this Richard? Is it the same Richard who married twice? Having two William and two Sarah children alive at the same time is unusual for this to be the case, although not impossible.
 The events on this tree have all been verified against the parish records and secondary evidence (witnesses at weddings etc) as far as is practically possible, but are not guaranteed.

Richard Woodward
Origin unknown
Ann Hinton
 m. 1/7/1742 Morton Bagot

This could be a Richard Woodward bap 20/3/1714 at Throckmorton (father: Emmanuel Woodward; Mother: Sarah Blizzard - married at Throckmorton and buried at Fladbury, Wors.) There are a lot of Woodwards in Throckmorton from the late 1600s to the 1730s and the Throckmorton family owned Coughton Court where most of the Coughton based Woodward members, who were agricultural labourers, worked.

This could be Ann Hinton bap 8/11/1713 at Kinwarton (father Ambrose Hinton; Mother: Margaret Heyward - married at Arrow). Ambrose's second wife was Mary Crowley from Kinwarton whose father was John Crowley, possibly Mary's brother. Mary and John Crowley may therefore have family links to Sarah Crowley who married William Woodward in 1765.
